THE ESSENTIAL GUIDE TO

2019

MOTORHOMES
& CAMPERVANS

Have you packed your bags?
Your holiday is about to begin!
Getting on board a McLouis brings back the thrill of your first holidays with friends. Remember the excitement and the fun of eating together?

McLouis is like a den made to measure for your carefree adventures.

There's a McLouis that's perfect for every travel party. You can choose from motorhomes, low-profiles, overcabs and campervans, all laid out so you can express your thirst for freedom to the full. Set off with McLouis to conquer the world!

The Fusion benefits from a Fiat 130bhp engine, as well as manual cab air-conditioning, cruise control and driver and passenger airbags. Step into the lounge and enjoy the opening sky dome with blind and flyscreen, and a habitation door with a window and pleated sliding mosquito net.

The kitchen features LED lighting and an integrated extractor hood as well as a slide-out spice shelf in the wall and a removable multi-purpose storage rack. In the bedroom, there is a spacious transverse double bed that comes with ample storage in the cupboards above.

The motorhome also benefits from a heated and lit garage with wide, lowered doors for easy loading, Seitz windows and walk-on fibreglass roof.

McLouis are returning to the UK with their brand-new Fusion range of motorhomes, available exclusively through the selected dealer network of the renowned UK manufacturer, Auto-Sleepers.

Working extensively together, they have created a portfolio of five coachbuilt leisure vehicles, which combine forward-thinking Continental style with the British demand for excellent craftsmanship throughout.

Starting at six metres long, Fusion models feature a variety of expertly designed practical layouts, including a plethora of high specification equipment, and are crafted with meticulous attention to detail.

Whatever your leisure pursuits, spacious rear garages and drop-down bed options offer incredible versatility; there really is a model to suit everyone's requirements.

This exciting line-up of motorhomes must be seen to truly appreciate their abundance of internal and external quality and style.

FUSION 379

The Fusion 379 is a stunning motorhome that is perfect for holidaying with friends and family, being a four-berth model that benefits from five comfortable travel seats.

It is also perfect for couples wanting that extra space, as the XXL rear island bed is huge, measuring 1.60m x 1.90m! This sits in a light and airy contemporary bedroom that promotes relaxation and a restful night's sleep. Plenty of storage to accommodate your holiday belongings is built into the stairs here, in addition to the generous cupboards located both above and to the sides of the bed.

Up front, a comfortable lounge is the ideal space for enjoying a leisurely breakfast or relaxing in the evening, while the central bathroom is perfect for freshening up on site.

FUSION 373

If you prefer the flexibility that twin single beds offer then the Fusion 373 is for you! Windows to both sides with nets and curtains and a central skylight ensure a light and airy sleeping area. Meanwhile, the vast stowage on offer in the form of lockers and shelves above the beds, spacious cupboards below and additional space in the steps ensures ample room for your holiday gear. Ahead of the bedroom, you'll find the practical bathroom, which is split across the galley with a washroom on one side and separate shower cubicle opposite. Come mealtimes, a generous kitchen area offers everything chef could need for catering on the road, with helpful pull-out and removable storage solutions. And the comfortable dinette/lounge up front offers the perfect space for relaxing.
